thousands of dollars each quarter. What goes wrong: Staff scramble to meet last-minute filing windows, increasing error rates. Practical fix: Set recurring "claim deadline" events at the start of every month and share them with billing and front-desk teams. Realistic expectation: Initial setup takes a few hours; ongoing maintenance drops to under ten minutes per month. Stacking back-to-back appointments may look efficient on paper, but it ignores inevitable overruns—lab delays, insurance verification, or patient questions. The hidden cost is not just wasted clinician time but also patient frustration that can drive churn. Welcome to Homeyhuts Host Lab!
